TRAINING FOR PROSECUTORS AND LAW ENFORCEMENT

"Enjoyed AEquitas presentations – very thorough, interesting, provided good resources, articulate and personable speakers." (Prosecutor)

Featured National Speakers

Mark Wynn

A 21 year member of Nashville Metropolitan Police Department serving as Lieutenant to Domestic Violence Division. He received the 2012 Family Justice Center Alliance Lifetime Achievement Award. In 2011, he was awarded the "Visionary Award" by End Violence Against Women International and the Distinguished Award by the National District Attorney's Association. He is a member of the International Association of Chiefs of Police National Strategic Partnership on Violence Against Women, faculty member to the National Leadership Institute, and consultant to other federal and state agencies.

Jim Markey

Served 30 years with the Phoenix Police Department retiring as Detective Sergeant. For 14 years he supervised the sex crime unit. In 2000, he developed and supervised a Cold Case Sexual Assault Team. This team was nationally recognized by the Alliance of Local Social Organizations in 2010, for its continuing success in investigation of sexual assault. Collaborating with numerous agencies and organizations, he provides consultation and training to federal, state, local and tribal law enforcement.

John F Wilkinson

An Attorney Advisor for AEquitas: the Prosecutors' Resource on Violence Against Women. He has presented extensively on the investigation and prosecution of domestic violence, sexual violence, stalking and human trafficking both in the United States and abroad. He was the Program Manager for the Gun Violence Prosecution Program, Homeland Security Program and Southwest Border Crime Program of the National District Attorneys Association (NDAA). He served as an Assistant Commonwealth's Attorney in Fredericksburg, VA, prosecuting cases involving intimate partner violence and sexual assault, including cases of campus sexual assaults and domestic violence homicide.
